RIGBY HIGH SCHOOL DEPARTMENT of MUSIC

ACTIVITY AND EXPECTATIONS

The Rigby High School Troylairs will be travelling on Thursday-Friday, December 12th - 13th to Provo & Salt Lake City, Utah and will be performing on Temple Square for the many visitors who frequent that venue at this time of year. As such, each participant will be representing Rigby High School, and must maintain a professional conduct and appearance throughout the activity:

- Students will be expected to bring their tuxedos/dresses, as well as any material required to perform. In addition, any hair styles and clothing that may be worn—throughout the duration of the activity, including travel to and from the venues—must conform to school standards.
- Students will be expected to remain in groups of at least 4 students throughout the activities, each monitored by an adult chaperone, and are not allowed to travel or tour alone. Students also will not be allowed to leave the area of the activity as described by the directors and staff of RHS.
- After dark while travelling on the bus, students will not be allowed to sit next to any member of the opposite gender, regardless of affiliation, sexual orientation, relationship, etc. The only exception would be should a parent/guardian and his/her child travel together.
- Any illegal activity, either as described by local, state, federal or school/district laws/guidelines will not be tolerated. Any such activity will result in the immediate removal from the event and parent notification. Legal infractions will be handled by local authorities.

As a contingency, should weather prevent safe travel at any point up to departure, the activity will be cancelled and all monies refunded. Should inclement weather prevent a safe return, and all other options exhausted, we will notify all parents/guardians, school/district administration, and book into a hotel or local high school for the night. Each individual student will be responsible for reimbursing the school for the hotel expense.
